The Del Rey Cafe opened in 1937 as a small Ma and Pa cafe in Winchester, Oregon. Being a much smaller community then, business consisted of regular customers, familiar faces, and neighbors. Throughout the years, The Del Rey Cafe has changed hands several times, but the food has stayed traditional, the staff has always been pleasant, and the atmosphere has become more and more comfortable as the years have passed. Now, after almost 10 years of ownership, Robin Eppersen has remodeled and built the Cafe's business up even more than before. With traditional menu items, and some new, the remodeled cafe still holds the nostalgic look and feel of the 1937 Del Rey Cafe. On the east side of the building, however, the remodel has added a welcomed addition; The Loft. The Loft is the lounge side to the Del Rey Cafe. Classy and clean, the atmosphere is great for wine and dining your loved ones.

We offer an assortment of wines, craft beers, and fine food for the soul.

Come in and see for yourself!
